

I drive truck for a living and I personally believe that XM Radio is a blessing. The traffic and weather updates are very handy in helping out us truckers. It's easier to find the XM channels verses regular radio. I pay for this service and I would like to keep it going in a positive way.